“I Am Foggers
From the heart of our employees!”

“Foggers India starts with the belief that we are in the business of people whether that is with customers, employees or business contacts.”
– Directors

“The corporate culture attracts and nurtures high-end professionals to a market-driven, purposefully innovative environment. The culture helps us raise the bar in reaching higher goals, and observing the difference we are able to make for our customers & agriculture sector.
We help the farmers to in turn help us provide our daily basic necessity.”
– Rupali Chidankar (Accounts)

“Rather than looking at everything you're not good at, the managements & HOD's urge you to recognize your guiding strengths and then reframe your job or your approach to situations accordingly.
When I am frustrated with a project, I back up and re-approach playing to my strengths. It's also been great for recognizing others' strengths and promoting group collaboration based on that variety. Foggers India has given me an opportunity to develop & build my career.”
– Prasad Jadhav (IT)

“Foggers India allows employees to flourish and implement new ideas. They supply us with the tools we need to do our jobs. It is a very dynamic environment, and the company encourages us to grow and try new things.
They provide us with a wonderful environment in which we work. It feels good coming to a company every day that really cares about its employees. They not only care about the employee but also about our work life balance.”
– Shubhash Yadav (Logistics)

“One of the reasons I am proud of working for Foggers India is that it has given me an opportunity to contribute to India's largest contributing sector i.e. agriculture. I have always wanted to be part of such a company that emphasizes on the same & also bring in lot of teamwork. And yes, here I've got it!. Also it has brought together customers and internal experts helps to build stronger relationships between farmers & services providers to enable better services – and relationships is what it is all about; with your customers, with your colleagues - and beyond!”
– Vilas Bhogle (Business Development)
